

Twist ‘n’ Shake

Elizabeth: lyrics.
James: guitars, bass.
Nigel: drums, keys.
Everyone: vocals.

Can’t beat a bit of Shakespeare
Thought the motley crew
Let’s put our heads together
See what we can do

We gonna twist 'n' shake
Take old William for a whirl
Twist 'n' shake. Twist 'n' shake
Twist 'n' shake them literary pearls

Liza on the lyrics
Inspired by Bill the Bard
Took poetic licence
Said ain’t no holds barred
James, he seized his guitar
Churned out all the tunes
Across the North Atlantic
Kris got ready to croon

We gonna twist 'n' shake
Take old William for a whirl
Twist 'n' shake. Twist 'n' shake
Twist 'n' shake them literary pearls

Now you can’t do Shakespeare
Without a leading man
So, we called on Nigel
To come and lend a hand
A man of many talents
Sings and plays the drums
Keyboards and maybe bagpipes
When he’s not feeling glum

We gonna twist 'n' shake
Take old William for a whirl
Twist 'n' shake. Twist 'n' shake
Twist 'n' shake them literary pearls

Kris has lovely diction
Relished Liza’s words
James put it all together
T’is a joy to be heard
And here's the epilogue
The album’s out on Soundblend
Why don’t you go and buy it?
It’s worth each single cent.

We gonna twist 'n' shake
Take old William for a whirl
Twist 'n' shake. Twist 'n' shake
Twist 'n' shake them literary pearls
